

The tax system and health

Did you know...

Research has shown that the EITC reduces the risk for low birth weight, likely by enabling families to seek better insurance coverage, decreasing risky behaviors such as smoking and increasing prenatal care.